HAPPY EASTER

Luke 24

New International Version

Jesus Has Risen

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. <sup>2</sup> They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, <sup>3</sup> but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup> While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. <sup>5</sup> In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup> He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: <sup>7</sup> ‘The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.’ ” <sup>8</sup> Then they remembered his words. <sup>9</sup> When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. <sup>10</sup> It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. <sup>11</sup> But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. <sup>12</sup> Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup> Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles<sup>[a]</sup> from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. <sup>15</sup> As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; <sup>16</sup> but they were kept from recognizing him. <sup>17</sup> He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast. <sup>18</sup> One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, “Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?” <sup>19</sup> “What things?” he asked. “About Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied. “He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. <sup>20</sup> The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; <sup>21</sup> but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. <sup>22</sup> In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning <sup>23</sup> but didn’t find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. <sup>24</sup> Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus.” <sup>25</sup> He said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?” <sup>27</sup> And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself. <sup>28</sup> As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. <sup>29</sup> But they urged him strongly, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. <sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. <sup>32</sup> They asked each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup> They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together <sup>34</sup> and saying, “It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.” <sup>35</sup> Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

<sup>36</sup> While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” <sup>37</sup> They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. <sup>38</sup> He said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? <sup>39</sup> Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.”

<sup>40</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. <sup>41</sup> And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” <sup>42</sup> They gave him a piece of broiled fish, <sup>43</sup> and he took it and ate it in their presence. <sup>44</sup> He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms.” <sup>45</sup> Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup> He told them, “This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

The Ascension of Jesus

<sup>50</sup> When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them. <sup>51</sup> While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. <sup>53</sup> And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God. ### Pride or self - conceit;

The virtual opposite to pride is called humility. The essential vice, the upmost evil, is pride. Unchastity, anger, greed, drunkenness, and all that are mere fleabites in comparison; it was through pride that the devil became the devil. Pride leads to every other vice, it is a complete anti-God state of mind.

Every persons pride is in competition with everyone else's pride. Pride is essentially competitive, it is competitive by it's very nature. Pride gets no pleasure out of having something only out of having more of it than the next man. We say that people are proud of being rich, or clever, or good looking, but they are not. They are proud of being richer, or cleverer, or better looking than others. It is the comparison that makes you proud. The pleasure of being above the rest.

Greed will certainly make a man want money for the sake of a better house, better holidays, better things to eat and drink but only up to a point. What is it that makes a man with $2 million a year anxious to get $4 million a year? It is not the greed for more pleasure; 2 million will give all the luxuries that any man can really enjoy. It is pride and the wish to be richer than some other rich man, and still more the wish for power, for of course, power is what pride really enjoys. There is nothing that makes a man feel so superior to others as being able to order them about or pressure them to do your bidding.

Pride always means hostility, and not only hostility between God and man, but hostility to God.

Pleasure in being praised is not pride. The child who is patted on the back for doing a lesson well, a woman who's beauty is praised by her lover, the saved soul to whom Christ says 'well done', are pleased and ought to be. For here the pleasure lies not in what you are but in the fact that you have pleased someone you rightly wanted to please. The trouble begins when you pass from thinking, 'I have pleased him, all is well', to thinking 'what a fine person I must be to have done it'. The real black, diabolical pride comes when you look down on others so much that you do not care what they think of you. (Edited from Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis)

Proverbs 11:2 NASB

When pride comes, then comes dishonor; But with the humble there is wisdom.

Proverbs 16:18 NASB

Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before stumbling.

Proverbs 29:23 NASB

A person's pride will bring him low, But a humble spirit will obtain honor.

Philippians 4:13

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me."

This verse gets quoted a lot, often in ways that miss the point. Paul isn't talking about achieving personal goals or winning competitions. Read the verses before this one—Paul is talking about being content whether he has plenty or nothing, whether life is comfortable or incredibly hard. The "all things" here means all circumstances, not all ambitions.

God's strength doesn't mean you'll succeed at everything you attempt. It means you'll have what you need to endure whatever comes. When you face situations that seem impossible to handle, Christ provides the strength to get through them. Not strength to avoid the hard thing, but strength to walk through it without being destroyed by it. That's a different kind of power than most people are looking for, but it's exactly what you need when life gets heavy. The Board did not meet this month.

All the ballots are in and Chuck Moore and Santo Landerer are renewed for a second term and Eugene Krebs will be joining the board again. Thank you to George Partridge for his 2 terms of service on the board and all the time and work he has put in.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Easter is about the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was crucified for our sins and then rose again as was promised. "In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." John 16:33 (NIV/ESV) When the disciples were told he had risen they doubted. After witnessing all the miracles, how could they still not believe. Despite all the miracles I have seen in my own life and others lives I still struggle with my faith. The slightest thing goes wrong or everything comes at me all at once. I lose hope. But Christ beat death and rose from the dead. What more must he do to stop our unbelief. He told them, “This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.” Luke 24:46-48. He left us the Holy Spirit. It is time to remove the doubt and to resurrect our own faith.
