HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Knowing The Future

Would you like to know the future? Would it be a pleasant experience especially considering you could do nothing to change the outcome? Noah had to deal with this mixed blessing when God told him about the coming flood (Genesis 6 & 7). They all laughed at him I'm sure and thought him insane. Another who knew the future was Daniel and it caused him at times great angst; check out his pleading prayer to God in Daniel 9:4-19. Then there was Jeremiah who is called the "weeping prophet" he was so distressed by the visions of the future he saw. Not so much fun knowing the future it would seem.

Did you ever consider yourself a fortuneteller or one who could predict the future? You are if you believe the Bible. Future events are all laid out for us in scripture, in prophesies. I believe these to be true for a number of reasons but not the least of which is so many of them have come to pass. I have seen prophecy fulfilled in my lifetime, for example in 1948 with the birth of Israel. There were ten prophesies fulfilled in Israel's rebirth;

<http://watchmanbiblestudy.com/Articles/1948PropheciesFulfilled.htm>.

We, and I believe it is in our nature; focus on the good and try to skim over or completely ignore the bad. So we talk more about Heaven, New Jerusalem, the Second Coming and our Glorious Promise but leave out the coming catastrophes of which there are many promised to come.

It's easy to see the way the world is heading. The world is in that commercial with the tidy bowl man in his dinghy and someone has flushed the toilet already. How bad will it get before the Rapture? Only God knows. We are told to pray without ceasing not that it means to be on your knees 24/7. But in your thoughts throughout your day, pray for our country not to be on the wrong "side of the fence" when things truly turn sour. We know the future and it is a bright light at the end of the tunnel (for those who know Jesus/Yeshua and have put their trust and hope in Him), but in the tunnel, it can be very dark indeed.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I have been thinking a lot about Thanksgiving and what am I most thankful for this year. As all of you know I retired in May and have been going through a very huge transition period. At first, I wasn't doing much and felt like I was adrift at sea and now I am super busy and want some down time. So many emotions all over the place. Constantly praying and asking God what is his will and what am I supposed to be doing. Poor Tom has to listen to my constant drama. The other day we were babysitting our grandkids and my granddaughter fell asleep on my lap. She is almost 1 year old. She stayed there for a long time. And then it hit me, I could not ask for more than this. God has blessed me with the most wonderful grandchildren and I get to be a big part of their lives. I am most thankful that I have this time with them. In those still, quiet moments my heart rejoices and I feel God's presence. I see the reflection of HIS love through my granddaughters angelic face as she sleeps. At that moment my Savior and I connect. Thank you Lord for revealing yourself to me!

MJM BOARD OF DIRECTORS PAGE

1 Peter 3:15

But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear.

This powerful verse encourages us to be prepared to articulate and defend our beliefs with a spirit of kindness and respect. It reminds us that it's important to be able to explain and defend what we believe in, but to do so in a loving and gentle manner. This verse challenges us to engage in conversations about our faith without using harsh or contentious words, but to approach others with compassion and humility.

Imagine if every discussion about faith was filled with gentleness and respect. How much more understanding and harmony could we create in the world? The verse also calls us to reflect on how we interact with others who may not share our beliefs. Are we able to defend our faith while still showing love and respect to those who have different perspectives? It's a reminder to be confident in our beliefs, but also to be open-minded and empathetic towards others.

- The Board of Directors had a meeting October 3rd .
- We also talked about nominations for awards at next year's spring kick off.
- We discussed nominations for election of new board members early next year. We are looking for (3) members who want to see this Ministry succeed and want to dedicate 3 years to helping make decisions on the future of this organization. Reach out to a Board member with a name who you think would be good for this.

The Board of Directors will be current riders whose experience, expertise, and wisdom are essential to the Motorcyclist for Jesus Ministries. Nominations for the Board of Directors will be made in writing by any member, other than the nominee, to bring his or her name before the Board for consideration to be put before the general membership for a vote. All nominations should be in the hands of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors no later than October 1. This deadline will be published in the August and September issues of the T.E.A.M VOICE Newsletter. The nominee must have been a member in good standing with MJM for a minimum of two (2) years. The member making the nomination shall include a brief biography and reasons why he or she believes the nominee would be a good board member. The Board of Directors shall then approve, or disapprove the nomination. Nominations will be considered with regard to geographical location. If approved by the Board, ballots for the nominee(s) shall be mailed individually to each member to approve their choice of nominees.

The Board of Directors, each being born-again, loyal Christians, will focus attention to all Motorcyclists for Jesus Ministries programs and activities, to assure that all programs and activities reflect a loyalty to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and that all programs and activities will have an evangelistic outreach to lead motorcyclists to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and to a true worship experience. The Board of Directors will establish governing policies, appoint and approve the Chaplain/Educational Director, Officers and Road Representatives, and prescribe activity guidelines.
