“FEAR OF THE LORD”

Show us your grace, Adonai; grant us your salvation.

I am listening. What will God, Adonai, say?

For he will speak peace to his people, to his holy ones — but only if they don't relapse into folly.

His salvation is near for those who fear him, so that glory will be in our land.

Grace and truth have met together; justice and peace have kissed each other.

Truth springs up from the earth, and justice looks down from heaven.

Adonai will also grant prosperity; our land will yield its harvest.

Psalm 85:8-13 Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

The scriptures mention “fear of The Lord” quite a bit and I believe a lot of people take this to mean cowering in fear like a gun was pointed at your head or your families and a “please don't kill us”, type of fear. Rightly or wrongly I look at it this way; if I walked up to the edge of the Niagara Falls, or the Grand Canyon, I would have a respectful fear of what would happen if I fell off but not a fear as if the Falls or the Canyon would reach up and pull me down. I know what could happen but be pretty sure it wasn't going to without some sort of foolish action on my part. Concerning God, there is also a fear of being left out, of being rejected, of being separated for eternity. To perhaps fearing becoming “hard of heart” or “falling back into folly” on our part and walking away from God.

Then there is this; Nehemiah 1:11 Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

Adonai, please, let your ear now be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take joy in fearing your name: please let your servant succeed today and win this man's compassion” — for I was the king's personal attendant.

And it was even spoken of the Messiah/Jesus this way in Isaiah 11:2-3 New American Standard Bible (NASB);

The Spirit of the Lord will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.
And He will delight in the fear of the Lord, And He will not judge by what His eyes see,
Nor make a decision by what His ears hear-

God Loves When We Don't

And [the prodigal son] arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. Luke 15:20

Many Christians know John Newton wrote "Amazing Grace," but not all know how the hymn reflects Newton's own story. Newton was the "wretch" who "was lost" and then "found" by God.

John Newton served on a slave-trading ship as a young man, having turned his back on the God of his youth. As a 23-year-old, the ship he was on was nearly destroyed in a violent storm, during which Newton called out to God to save him—it was the beginning of his conversion to Christ. John Newton is a good example of how God continues to love even those who don't love Him—just as Jesus illustrated in the famous story of the prodigal son. That rebellious young man turned his back on his father yet found that his father's love for him had never ceased.

John 3:16 says that God so loved the world—some of whom have rejected Him—that He sent Christ to show the world His love. Whether you love God today or not, He loves you.

Turning Point

The true measure of God's love is that He loves without measure.
