HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

*“Who Do You Have Faith In
...Forever?”*

By Petros

Imagine that God, at this moment, makes His presence known to you. He calls you by your name. Just as He called Abraham. In the scenarios below, applying what the Bible says about God and Abraham should put everyone's mind at ease unless your understanding prevents having faith in God's love for his creation.

1. Would you be Adam, who replied, “I ran and hid because I was afraid ...” “the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not fear, Abram, I am a shield to you” Genesis 15:1
2. Would you be Abraham, who replies, “Here I am, Lord.” “By Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, ... indeed I will greatly bless you, ...” Genesis 22:15-17
3. Would you behave the same as the crowd that is holding onto the last presidency? “Go forth from your country, And from your relatives ... To the land which I will show you; ... And I will make you a great nation, And I will bless you, ... And the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.” Genesis 12:1-3

How do you imagine your feelings would be when God comes -- calling you by name? Abraham had a one on one relationship with God the Almighty. “I ... am your very great reward ... Abram believed the LORD, and it was credited to him as righteousness. (Genesis 15:1-6.) God made a promise to Abraham that he and all of his descendants would always be considered righteous, before God. God keeps the gift of righteousness upon Abraham despite the many times he fails to do as God says. Kings would fear Abraham because they could see the hand of God on his life. “Then Abram fell to the ground as God continued speaking to him. “Look, I’ve made a covenant with you ... I’ll make you the father of many nations ... I’m establishing my covenant between me and you, and with your descendants who come after you, generation after generation, as an eternal covenant, to be your God and your descendants' God after you." (Genesis 17:3-7.) God's grace and mercy, as descendants of Abraham, allows us to remain righteous in God's judgment. Just as close as Abraham was to God, Abraham (repeatedly) could and would disobey God. Our belief in God, our faith in the Almighty God that Abraham would answer, "Here, I am," is why God loves us.

Our belief in God allows us to understand and feel the sacrifice and love He offers us (His Kingdom on earth!). "In those days Jesus came ... and was baptized by John in the Jordan ... and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. Then a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you!" Jesus ... said, "The time is now! The kingdom of God is near! Repent, and keep believing the gospel!" (Mark 1:9-14.) Our belief in God allows us a haven where darkness is illuminated. The key to the Kingdom of God which "is near" is to look to God (turn from our sin) and obey God's word. The Holy Bible is the written word of God. "But seek (aim at and strive after) first of all His kingdom and His righteousness (His way of doing and being right), and then all these things taken together will be given you besides." (Matthew 6:33, AMP.) I think we are onto something. Karen Lafferty (1972) wrote in her song, "Seek Ye First," "Seek ye first the kingdom of God; And His righteousness, And all these things shall be added unto you. Allelu, alleluia."

The case is made that faith in God will guarantee God's righteousness. Seeking the Kingdom of God will bring us into all and more. So in our world, today, people of all colors and beliefs are all descendants of Father Abraham. Which makes us all not only family, "but (makes you) a great nation with God's blessing ... And the one who curses you ..." will be of darkness and deceit -- not part of the Family of God ... darkness will be cursed because it does not belong in the family of God. And, "...all the families of the earth will be blessed." True faith is: God is the Creator of All, He is the One and Only; the Beginning and the End; God is the Truth.

In closing, I have a weight on my heart seeing what is going on in our country. Lost is the love for our neighbor. Our country's forefathers, who prayed and sought God's blessing, drafted a Constitution with intent that truth and justice shall prevail. Now we have interpretations and amendments on the core principles; ... was there even a motion to seek God's direction? Pretty sure, "Thou shalt not kill" still stands in the Book. Groups of people are adopting views and hearsay as gospel truth. Mob mentality is blinding people. God and country is forgotten and more conspiracy formulating and plans of counter-attack are gaining loyalist. I attempted to gently persuade the reader to seek the path God has for each and avoid the pitfall in following the (sometimes) follies and agendas of man. The value in God-granted righteousness, through the generations that we are part of, is not being broadcast as good news. It is crucial for everyone to go before God to seek His grace and mercy. Better to practice now and often, before standing alone before the Judgment of God, hoping to hear, "My good and faithful servant ..."

So in our world, as individuals, we need to call upon the Lord, all day and every day, as living in the Kingdom of God. It is by the power of our Lord and Savior that will bring us into eternity. Getting caught up with man's follies is letting the darkness in that blinds us from seeing God's path for us. Individually, we will stand in judgment before God. Faithfulness to a group opposing God's Truth will not justify eternity with God. Now more than ever is the time to go before God. The Truth shall set you free. Adolf Hitler was welcomed to join the German Workers' Party. When Hitler was appointed leader, his personal agenda created the Nazi Party. Hitler's faithful followers were convinced they could establish a New Order by elimination of six million Jews from Germany and started WWII. Certainly, I am not hinting to any likeness from history to today. Just pointing out that following a man is emotional and following God is a discipline. One has a guarantee it will be done only if God allows it, and the other comes with a guarantee for an eternal life.

It has been close to twenty years since a good biker friend told me about his motorcycle ministry. He was the President of “The Seed of Abraham,” Lowell, MA Chapter. He said to me, “... you know the story of Abraham being the Father of All nations?” And as descendants, or “seeds,” we are called to preach the good news to fellow bikers. I felt in my heart there was more to Abraham being the Father of All than I was willing to admit to not knowing. At the time, my friend was having the quality time with God and given the spiritual ears to hear the Word of God. He has gone home, but when our paths cross, most likely on our HD rides, aka Heavenly Divine versions of Harley Davidson motorcycles, we will rejoice and brotherly hug ... and I will share with him that at the time he was pleading his case of being a Seed, I had no idea of God's plan to make me righteous. It took me a couple years, Dick, but I think by the story I just presented, you will agree I have put in the time before God. I have learned to discipline myself, to have quality time and prayer with God. I have been given spiritual ears to hear God and understand His Word, and the truth has set me free. And I'm learning there is so much more of God and His ways to love and save us from eternal separation from eternity with God. Also, there isn't enough time in my life to learn of the Kingdom of God before it evolves beyond a spiritual world of blessed reassurance and peace.

A question: Has your life significantly changed by the last three Presidential terms?

My answer: At my level or pecking order in society, nothing of significance has changed in my life due to whoever was President. When Obama saved the US auto makers, I didn't need to buy a new car. When Trump made me nervous with his personality as one of the world's most powerful people -- no bombs hit near my backyard. And I can't remember being involved with politics before Obama. From the survey I based my question on, most peoples' lives were not impacted by the last three Presidents. So, all the concerns and efforts are for naught. However, I am thankful that Biden has picked an experienced cabinet to advise him and those concerned to make the right decisions. And will pray to that cause with the leading of God.

Another question: Who Do You Have Faith In? Man's Ideals or Man of righteousness.

My answer: My answer is in the article. Contemplate immediately. Both come with a guarantee for life by God. Forever is a long time.

THE OBJECT OF JEALOUSY

“For you shall not worship any other god, because the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God” Exodus 34:14 (NASB)

Sometimes reading the Bible raises questions. For instance, we are warned in scripture to avoid jealousy and envy, it is rottenness to the bones in Proverbs 14:30, and yet one of God's names in the Old Testament is jealous, for he is a jealous God.

Why is jealousy an attribute for God but a sin for us? Because of the motivation. God is not jealous for us because he envies something we have that he doesn't have. Instead, think of jealous as zealous. God loves us so much that he is zealous for us to worship him alone, to live in close communion with him. God is jealous for us because he knows we will benefit from our devotion to him. On the other hand when we are jealous it is for selfish reasons. We want something for our own pleasure that another person has. God's jealousy is other centered, human jealousy is self-centered.

If you find yourself experiencing jealousy, ask yourself, who is the object of my feelings? Do I want the best for the other person or the best for myself?

God is jealous for the good of His redeemed people, but He can never be jealous of anything or anyone.

SCRIPTURES TO CONTEMPLATE

All of us, like sheep, have gone astray,
Each of us has turned to his own way;
But the Lord has caused the wrongdoing of us all
To fall on Him. Isaiah 53:6 (NASB)
Submitted by Ed Beckman (OH)

PSALM 23:1-6 (KJV)

{A Psalm of David.} The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

THE BEATITUDES

MARK 5:1-12 (NIV)

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, <sup>2</sup> and he began to teach them.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup> Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

<sup>10</sup> Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

EDITOR'S THOUGHTS

My husband and I were recently reflecting on how much God has blessed us. When we first met neither of us was making a lot of money. I was a single parent in a low paying job and he had just lost his traveling sales job. We were both living in a big apartment complex. Me and my son lived on the first floor and he lived on the 3rd floor directly above us. His mail got into my mailbox and me and my son brought his mail to him. 2 years later we were planning our wedding and trying to buy a house. On paper it seemed impossible, but God came through and we built our first home together. Later on my mother's health declined and we had to buy a bigger house with first floor accommodations for her. We looked at several houses for about a year and eventually decided on the first house we had originally looked at. Again, it seemed impossible and we had to jump through a lot of hoops. The owner kept trying to back out of the deal. The house was close to all of my mother's doctors and it was located between me and my husband's jobs. It was also twice the price of the house we were currently living in and how could we pay for 2 homes until we sold the other one. So many things to worry about. My mother kept saying are you sure you're not getting in over your heads. We had prayed on it and felt this is what God wanted. As the word says, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28 (KJV) My brother in law and his wife rented our old house and later bought it. God provided money for the down payment and funds to make some changes to the house for my mother and us. She took the first floor for her special needs and my husband and I took the second floor and turned it into our haven. My mother has went on to be with the Lord and we are still in this amazing house. I still feel her spirit all over the house and go and sit on her bed and talk to her. She lived with us in both houses for a total of 20 years. It was quite an adventure and I would not change any of it. This is only 1 example of the many blessings God has given us. All those years ago if you had told me I would have this great house and all the other blessings I would have said you were crazy. But God knew. Everything is in his perfect timing and it ain't over till its over!! "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

HIS YEARS

I look in the mirror and see the years gone by,
My eyes then reach toward heaven and ask why.
He answers me and says there is a plan and not to worry.
The years then start to roll off my face and youth ventures in for a moment.
I see a different time and person smiling back at me.
Behold, it is the me that God sees.
My savior has shown me this beautiful child that was created in his image.
A soft voice whispers, "You are my creation and I love you."
The Spirit speaks to my soul and says to love myself as HE loves me.
Do not let me down my child and shine the inner light that is within you.
For I live inside you for all the world to see.
This light is a beacon to the lost and needs to glow in the wilderness.
Lead my sheep back to the light.
I now understand and thank him for the years that have gone by and those yet to come.

NORTH COUNTRY HONOR FLIGHT

These are pictures of the North country Honor Flight that Phil Guica participated in last summer. Bikers would meet the veterans at his or her home along with a state police car which the veteran can ride in while the 6 or so bikers escort him to the park in Plattsburgh, New York, where they commemorate them with a certificate of appreciation by a high ranking officer or nco of the same branch of service that they served in. Then they are loaded on a bus and the bikers which were about 300 escorted them to the airport where they boarded a plane to Washington, DC to have a tour of the grounds, then they flew them back to Plattsburgh.
