Pretending

Matthew 9:36 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

Seeing the people, He felt compassion for them, because they were DISTRESSED and DISPIRITED like sheep without a shepherd.”

The world around us says we should hide or cover up our weaknesses, put up a good front, stiff upper lip and all that. But Jesus sees through all this and knows when it comes down to it, if you’re honest, we might describe ourselves as He did; distressed. Distressed by a world that tells us we should be competent, younger, smarter, thinner, healthier, our marriages more exciting, our jobs more fulfilling, and yet at every turn makes us feel unworthy or insignificant. There’s always that harassing voice telling us ‘it isn’t enough’. That’s why you see people who are thin on a diet and so concerned about what they eat and beefy guys and girls in great shape stressing out at the gym if they’ve missed a day. Millions of self-help and diet books are sold each year. A lot of them to the same people.

But, much of our life is out of our control and trying to control the uncontrollable can make you feel overwhelmed. There are two response options to this. We can pretend, or we can surrender. (I’m leaving praying out because that should always be done anyway.) You can put up some social veneer or mask yourself, your family relationships, your health or whatever for the showroom of the world. That is what the Pharisees did, but religious rules and regulations or a social mask, what’s the dif? Jesus called them “white-washed tombs” good looking on the outside but really just fakes.

Walk in the truth, it’s the best option. If you need help, say so. If you don’t feel so good and things are not going great, let it out. Why “sugar coat” everything? What good does that do? Besides if people don’t know you are hurting they don’t know what to pray for with you.

And surrender? NOT an option.

Just sayin’ – gt
