MJM Bike Week 2020

Luke 14:23 “ And the Lord said unto that servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

As I set here and reflect on the 10 days of Bike Week the word blessed comes to mind. I was so blessed to be able to share Jesus with those that stopped by the booth. We were also a blessing to those that stopped by. We probably gave away 10 to 12 gallons of coffee. The big hit was the cross pennies. What a great witnessing tool they are. We would get to share Jesus in such a simple way. The pennies are a neat way to share Jesus. We tell them the penny makes cent just like JESUS MAKES SENSE.

I ask the camp owner if we could have church service. He was all in for doing that.

Cackleberry Campground has never had a church service before. Ron who is the owner of Cackleberry told us if he was not busy, he would come. The first Sunday there were only four people attending church; Jesus, Linda, Santo and I but we had church. The second Sunday there were 6 of us for worship service. The three of us, Jesus and two women that were a part of Wheels of Death. I lead the worship part of the service and Santo preached. You could feel the presence of the HOLY SPIRIT.

People that were hurting would stop by. One guy that stopped had gone through a very nasty divorce 7 years ago. He pays his child support, but his ex-wife makes it very hard for him to see his kids I talked with and then ask if I could pray for him. He was very open to prayer.

Then there was this fellow named Russ. He had just lost his wife from cancer. One-night Linda brought dinner up for us. Russ stopped by. I ask if he had dinner he had not. So, we shared our Pinto beans with him. He was so grateful. Russ stopped by the booth several time just to talk and pour his heart out to us. What so neat about Russ was he had been in and out of prison several times. God works mysterious ways. I know God has us there if for no other reason than to minister to Russ. He was on fire for Jesus. His testimony was a blessing to me.

Then there was Micky, he as part of Wheels of Death motorcycle show. He came over several times and we talked. He would also come and get coffee. I don't know if anything I said to him pricked his heart, but I tried to share Jesus with him every time he would stop to talk or just get coffee. We planted the seed. I ask everyone reading this pray for those we had the privilege to minister to.

I want to close this article by giving a big shout out to Don and Mae Marshal for coming over and helping in the booth 2 days. I also want to thank Jack Senior and Jim Abbot for stopping by. Finally, Mountain Man for a great job pin stripping my trike. Mountain Man is a great Christian man.
