Here Comes the Son

by

Thee Beetles; John & Paul

John and Paul were on their Harley's as they brought it down a gear. Cruising along, the rumble of the V-Twins had put distance between their persecutors-the Devil's Disciples. Riding side by side on the open country road they were enjoying their camaraderie. It had been a good day, everything was alright. As they rounded the bend they came into the sun's brilliance filling the horizon. As they chugged along, squinting their eyes to find the edge of the road. They came to the same thought while exchanging glances. In unison, they excitedly claimed "Here Comes the Son!" As they looked at each other, they grinned and sang to each other "Here Comes the Son. It's alright, now." That moment burned into their hearts forever. Whenever they saw a sunset-they rejoiced to each other, "Here Comes the Son. It's alright, now."

Sometime earlier, Paul had poured out his hearts gratitude in worship to God. To his surprise he felt the warmth of God descend upon him like the sunshine gently warming his skin. He was illuminated. How awesome is God who would let his servant know how much his meager attempt (to give glory to God) would mean so much to Him; that He would let Paul know it! Our God is an Awesome God.

Peter, on the other hand, had been praying by the window. As he prayed, he became aware of the overall warmth sent from God above. In the sunshine, he felt the warmth of God upon him. He felt His reassurance just as God had sent Son-Jesus. Peter became very illuminated realizing the sacrifice and love of God spoken in the depth of the sunshine upon him.

Peter being the Disciple Jesus loved most wanted to have a tribute to honor "The Teacher ". As a Disciple he taught the followers "God sent His Son... so that no one would perish." He expanded the experience he had with Paul and wrote the song “Here Comes the Son” It became a popular song which the crowds would sing as they saw Jesus approaching. As time goes on, things change, let it be known the original lyrics went something like this:

Little darling, the smiles returning to the faces
Little darling, it seems like years since He's been here.
Here comes the Son, doo-doo-doo-doo, here comes the Son.
And I say it's all right. Son, Son, Son, here He comes.

May you have your moment with the Son and may he give you a song to share. May the Son always shine on you. "Then THE RIGHTEOUS WILL SHINE FORTH AS THE SUN in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear." Matthew 13:43

Hello MJMers from Ohio

Many current MJM Members, have never been blessed by knowing our MJM Founders. Sadly, there are only a few of the original MJM Founders which are known to be still living. (MJMs History Document outlines our founders) Likewise, there are only a hand full of us old timers, (1989 Charter Members) still around. Kerma and I stopped riding a few year ago, but we still remember those early MJM years and the dedication of our founders. I think it's important to remember our MJM founders/roots. We took a camping trip down to Southern Kentucky a few week ago. We were only about 50 miles from Glasgow, Kentucky where one of our remaining founders, Jean Gregory, lives. Her husband Hubert, passed away in 2008. We called her an invited ourselves over, what a blessing it was to see our ole friend. Jean is now 93years young. She looks good and is still sharp as a tack. Other than some leg issues that have her in a wheelchair, she seem to be in good health and very good spirits. Her son David, daughter Esther and grandson are taking very good care of her. We had a fantastic visit talking about our early MJM years. We recalled the early years of 1991-95, when MJM really struggled to keep afloat. New membership was real good the first couple years, then for some reason, it fell off causing a real financial strain. Few members at that time or now, knew that without the financial support of Hubert & Jean there would not be any Motorcyclists For Jesus Ministries today. They and the other founders personally kept MJM financially afloat during those early hard years. I'm including Jeans mailing address. She told us she hears from very few MJM people. It would be awesome if a few MJMers would send her a thank-you/thinking of you card. Let her know after 32 years, MJM is still alive and active.
