Jesus Promises the Holy Spiritexcerpts from my Book-Chapter 14 written by John

Yes, it has been recorded that I was “the disciple whom Jesus loved”. Only by His grace to follow and learn about His love, would I realize Jesus who is Love - loved all, unconditionally. “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” (John 3:16). In our travels, we came to a village who refused to welcome Jesus and the rest of our disciples. My brother, James and I were so upset with their arrogance that we asked Jesus permission to “...call fire from heaven...” upon them. (Luke 9:54). Ever since that day, Jesus would call, my brother and I, the “Sons of Thunder”. If we only had Harleys back then, we could have showed the “Sons of Anarchy” what a “wasted life” meant to God. We lived his heart ache for the “villagers” and down the road, would feel his love for those who did not let Jesus die in vain.

Tonight, Teacher got up from our meal and washed our feet. “Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another feet.” (John 13:14). We were humbled and felt in our hearts the extent of how we are to love and serve. We didn't know at the time that this was our “Last Supper” with our Master. Jesus as the humble servant would suffer and die for our salvation as only His love could do. Now we understand what he meant when he broke the bread and gave it to us, saying “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me. In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.” (1 Corinthians 11:24-25) We hope you feel the love he wanted everyone to know. He wanted us to know his love went deeper than what our eyes saw. “If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever-the Spirit of truth....the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.” (John 14:15-17:26) Jesus was allowing us to “discover” our love for Him by recalling and living by his sermons and teachings. “Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them.” (John 14:21). Jesus was talking as if he was going to leave us and that we should record accurately so we would be able to live as he did. We felt the baton passed to us and the responsibility to pass along this “good news” to one and all, present and future. “Jesus replied, “Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.” ” (John 14:23) Of course we loved Him, not only by the amazing miracles he did but by the astounding words when He spoke. And now, He tells us that our God in Heaven will come to be within us? How can that be, we asked ourselves!!!!??? Only when the Holy Spirit came upon us did we “hear” and understand how much God loves us. “He who has ears...” (has a heart to seek Gods' love will be given spiritual ears to) “...let him hear” (Mathew 13:9). “Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.” (Romans 12:2 NIV)

Our Teacher predicted, “Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching... I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing...” (John 14:24; 12). Jesus' love for us is so compelling that we are moved to share the good news with the world to give hope to the lost and hungry. Our hope is the same as Jesus that (upon receiving the Holy Spirit of God) all may come into the Kingdom of Heaven, As “God in Heaven will come to be within us” his Spirit of Truth will allow us to discern his will. At the same time, the Councilor and Comforter allows us to have a life as if it was heaven on earth. “The Holy Spirit of God, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things.” “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you...not as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.” (John 14:27)
