SHEEP

Psalm 23:5b Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

Even after the shepherd has led his sheep to grazing lands that he has meticulously prepared for the sheep, his ministrations are not done. Because of warm weather insects like warble flies, bot flies, mosquitos, gnats and the dreaded nose flies the shepherd uses oil mixtures such as linseed oil mixed with Sulphur and tar on the sheep's head and nose for protection. More than once he would have to anoint his sheep for their protection.

The writer of this psalm, David, was a shepherd himself and knew these things, so he could compare that to God's gracious applications of Spirit to protect us from life's daily frustrations, dilemmas and attacks.

Abba, it would not surprise me that many people who believe in You and certainly those that do not like the connotations of being called sheep. They think it means that people follow blindly and sheep are not known as being very bright. BUT in reality, being Your sheep, means that You care for us with a gently loving hand and heart. That You would anoint us with Your oil (Your love) to keep us safe and in Your gentle loving arms. We pray Abba that we remain Your sheep, and that we can assist You in bringing more sheep into the fold.

In Your Loving and Holy Name,
Amen.

Always looking up,
RT & GT

EDITORS NOTE

It is a season of thankfulness. I am thankful that I met Jesus when I was a little girl. I am thankful that my Lord and Savior went to the cross and died for my sins. Without this I would not have eternal life. I am thankful for the ability to pray. I am thankful that I can write this newsletter and email/mail it to others. There are people all over the world that get killed for doing these things. Many people cannot read. I am thankful that I can vote and own property. This was not always the case. Many people gave their lives so that I can do so. I am thankful for every second the Lord gives me on this earth. I am so thankful for MJM and everyone in it. I am thankful for my family. I am thankful for shelter and food to eat. The Lord has always provided no matter how hard times were. He will make a way where there is no way. I admit I forget to be thankful a lot of times and look at the glass half empty instead of full. Tom always reminds me that our cup does truly runneth over. Luke 6:38 “Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap.”

The Three Visitors Genesis 18 (NIV)

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup> Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

<sup>3</sup> He said, “If I have found favor in your eyes, my lord,<sup>[a]</sup> do not pass your servant by. <sup>4</sup> Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree. <sup>5</sup> Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way—now that you have come to your servant.”

“Very well,” they answered, “do as you say.”

<sup>6</sup> So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. “Quick,” he said, “get three seahs<sup>[b]</sup> of the finest flour and knead it and bake some bread.”

<sup>7</sup> Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. <sup>8</sup> He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.

<sup>9</sup> “Where is your wife Sarah?” they asked him.

“There, in the tent,” he said.

<sup>10</sup> Then one of them said, “I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son.”

Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him. <sup>11</sup> Abraham and Sarah were already very old, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing. <sup>12</sup> So Sarah laughed to herself as she thought, “After I am worn out and my lord is old, will I now have this pleasure?”

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and say, ‘Will I really have a child, now that I am old?’ <sup>14</sup> Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return to you at the appointed time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”

<sup>15</sup> Sarah was afraid, so she lied and said, “I did not laugh.”

Priestly Blessing

Numbers 6:24-27 (KJV)

<sup>23</sup> Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

<sup>27</sup> And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.
